

Making a complaint about the Mental Health Commission

The Mental Health Commission is committed to providing you with an effective and efficient complaints management process and welcomes your feedback.

A complaint may be made by completing the form and:

- emailing it to complaints@mhc.wa.gov.au;
- faxing to (08) 6553 0400; or
- posting it to GPO Box X2299, Perth Business Centre WA 6847.

First Name		Last Name
Email		Phone Number
I am making a complaint about: (If you wish to complain about an NGO, hospital, alcohol and other drug or mental health service, then please go to the 'Making a Complaint about a Service' page)
Mental Health Commission staff member <input type="checkbox"/>		Service received from the Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health Support Service <input type="checkbox"/>
Mental Health Commission policy <input type="checkbox"/>		Other (please specify below) <input type="checkbox"/>
Message: (Please provide us with as much detail as you can about your complaint in the form field below)
I am under 25 years of age		Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>
I identify as a person with disability		Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>
I identify as culturally and linguistically diverse		Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>